The Proclamation of the Word

First Reading: Job 38:1-7 (Hannah Hill)

Bible p. 847 OT

Psalm 104:

1 Bless the Lord, O my soul; *

O Lord my God, you are very great! You are clothed with majesty and splendour.

2 You wrap yourself with light as with a cloak * and spread out the heavens like a tent.

3 You lay the beams of your chambers in the waters above; *

you make the clouds your chariot; you ride on the wings of the wind.

4 You make the winds your messengers * and flames of fire your servants.

5 You set the earth upon its foundations, *

so that from now until forever it shall never be moved.

6 You covered it with the deep as with a garment; *

the waters stood above the mountains.

7 At your rebuke the waters fled; * scattered by your voice of thunder.

8 They went up into the hills and descended down to the valleys, *
to the place where you assigned them.

9 You set the limits that they should not pass; *

never shall they return to cover the earth again.

24 People go forth to their work * and to their labour until the evening.

35 May these words of mine please God; * I will rejoice in the Lord.

We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.
