The Proclamation of the Word

First Reading: Jeremiah 20:7-13 (Vern Seel) Bible p. 722 OT

Psalm 69:7-10, 16-18:

- 7 Let not those who hope in you be put to shame through me, Lord God of hosts; *
let not those who seek you be disgraced because of me, O God of Israel.
- 8 Surely, for your sake have I suffered reproach, * and shame has covered my face.
- 9 I have become a stranger to my own kindred, * an alien to my mother’s children.
- 10 Zeal for your house has eaten me up; *
the scorn of those who scorn you has fallen upon me.
- 16 Save me from the mire; do not let me sink; *
let me be rescued from those who hate me, and out of the deep waters.

17 Let not the torrent of waters wash over me, neither let the deep swallow me up; *
do not let the Pit shut its mouth upon me.

18 Answer me, O Lord, for your love is kind; * in your great compassion, turn to me.”

INTERIM FAQs – WHAT’S HAPPENING WITH THE INTERIM RIGHT NOW?

One of the important tasks of interim ministry is to ensure that the on-going life of the parish doesn’t stop. Here at St Timothy’s, that has included, that we not lose momentum and energy for projects you already started, such as the kitchen renovation and the food-based ministries you built it for. So, some of the work clergy and leaders have been focused on this spring has been ensuring that the on-going life of the parish and the kitchen renovation completion has been happening.

Another important task of interim ministry is getting a “pulse” of the parish and responding to what needs to be addressed before a canonical process can begin. In some parishes, that means addressing underlying issues such as unresolved conflicts or very messy administrative practices. Here at St Timothy’s, the “pulse” that became immediately clear was tiredness.

For a number of reasons, many in the parish had that late winter/early spring exhaustion thing going on. And so, we decided to do our best to allow for rest through the Spring; to scale up food-based ministry slowly; to try not to add too many activities into our lives; and to make worship feel as renewing as possible.

We’ll continue in this pattern through the summer; although we’ll begin getting ready for a slightly busier Fall. One of the big tasks for this fall will be some parish conversations in preparation for the Canonical Committee to be called together to write the Parish Profile. We’re anticipating scheduling at least some of them after church on Sunday morning and enjoying using the kitchen to gather around a meal while we talk.

Free Public Lecture through Vancouver School of Theology

A Faith Worth Making:
Understanding the Cultural Nature of Children’s Ministry, and Why It Matters

On Tuesday, July 04, 2017, from 7:00-9:00 pm, there will be a free public lecture, at the Chapel of The Epiphany, 6030 Chancellor Blvd., UBC, Vancouver. Come and hear the speaker, David Csinos, as he explores the intersection of theology, culture, and ministry with young people. Relying on his recent research into children’s theologies and interculturalism, Dave questions common practices and assumptions within children’s ministry and charts new paths based on the actual theological lives of young people.

If you are interested in attending this lecture and would like to “make an evening of it”, please see Pastor Ruth about organizing dinner somewhere on the UBC campus before the lecture.
