People: And also with you.

Presider: Almighty God,

All: to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hidden. Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Collect of the Day:

Said by all

Living God, you accept our stumbling faith, our misplaced answers, our false horizons, and through them you build a way of peace. Empower and enable us to bind the wounds of the world and loose the bonds of oppression, so that all may confess the grace that is your work alone; through Jesus Christ, your anointed one. Amen.

The Proclamation of the Word

First Reading: Isaiah 51:1-6

Psalm 138:

- 1 I will give thanks to you, O Lord, with my whole heart; *
before the gods, I will sing your praise.
- 2 I will bow down toward your holy temple and praise your name, *
because of your steadfast love and faithfulness;
- 3 For you have glorified your name * and your word above all things.
- 4 When I called, you answered me; * you increased my strength within me.

- 5 All the rulers of the earth will praise you, O Lord, *
when they have heard the words of your mouth.
- 6 They will sing of the ways of the Lord, * that great is the glory of the Lord.
- 7 The Lord is high, yet cares for the lowly; * perceiving the haughty from afar.
- 8 Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you keep me safe; *
you stretch forth your hand against the fury of my enemies; your right hand shall save me.
- 9 You will make good your purpose for me, O Lord; *
your steadfast love endures for ever; do not abandon the works of your hands.

Eucharistic Prayer ELW # V:

Presider: It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks and praise to you, almighty and merciful God, through our Saviour Jesus Christ; who on this day overcame death and the grave, and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life.

And so, with all the choirs of angels, with the church on earth and the hosts of heaven, we praise your name and join in their unending hymn:

Sanctus: “Holy, Holy Lord”

SGP # 97

Presider: Holy, mighty, and merciful Lord, heaven and earth are full of your glory. In great love, you sent to us Jesus, your Son, who reached out to heal the sick and the suffering, who preached good news to the poor, and who, on the cross, opened his arms to all.

In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: “Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying; “This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

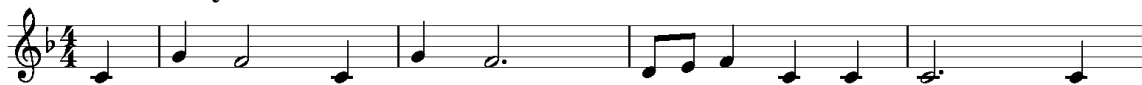

Remembering, therefore, his death, resurrection, and ascension, we await his coming in glory.

Pour out upon us the Spirit of your love, O Lord, and unite the wills of all who share in this heavenly food, the body and blood of Jesus Christ our Lord; to who, with you and the Holy Spirit, be all glory and honour, now and forever.

All: Amen.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

ALTAR FLOWERS TODAY: – Altar flowers for today are given to the Glory of God and in happy memory of two August 27 weddings by Lyndon Grove.

TODAY IS THE WORSHIP TEAM PLANNING MEETING: If you would like to participate in planning worship for September and October, please join Pastor Ruth after church today. We will look at which Eucharistic Prayers we will use and what hymns we will sing.

CLEANING SERVICES: The Leadership Team received notice from our janitor, Brent Morgan, that he is unable to continue after August 31. We are working on a replacement service. Brent often cleaned when none of us were here so we might not know him by face, but all of us have benefited from his hard work. Please sign the card that will be available during coffee hour so that he can have an expression of our gratitude.

ANGLICAN SPIRITUAL FORMATION RETREAT: The Diocese is offering a new weekend retreat for spiritual formation, called “For the Life of the World (Pro Mundi Vita).” The two pilot weekends are October 13-15 (register by September 29) and October 27-29 (register by October 13). The format of the retreat supports spiritual formation through personal encounters with God through the power of the Holy Spirit. Using creative structured exercises, music and art, each individual is empowered to reflect on her or his own faith journey, to experience refreshment in common prayer, to encounter Christ in the Scriptures, and to seek a time of contemplative rest in God and in community. If this sounds interesting to you, please speak to Pastor Ruth for additional information.

HOSPITALITY TIME – Following today’s worship, please join us for refreshment and fellowship. Coffee and tea service will be provided by Anne Marie Milner & Peggy Smallwood.

BLESSING OF THE BACKPACKS – SEPTEMBER 3: To mark the beginning of the new school year, we will include prayers for school staff, teachers and learners in our worship on Sunday, September 3. Backpacks, tote bags, lunch kits and other symbols of school or educational settings are most welcome; and a prayer of blessing for them will be offered.

UPCOMING FALL DATES: We are looking ahead to the cooler days of Fall. Dates for the annual St. Michael and All Angels Evening Prayer worship and the St. Francis Day Pet Blessing are included in this morning’s bulletin. If there are additional Fall activities beginning, please be in touch with Pastor Ruth or Lizz in the office @ 604-299-6816.

AMENDED KITCHEN WISH LIST: Thinking of donating something to our new kitchen, but not sure what? Check out the amended kitchen wish list posted on the Hall white-board downstairs. If you have any questions, please see Maribeth M.

INTERIM FAQs – WHAT’S HAPPENING WITH THE INTERIM RIGHT NOW?

One of the important tasks of interim ministry is to ensure that the on-going life of the parish doesn’t stop. Here at St Timothy’s, that includes that we not lose momentum and energy for projects you already started, such as the kitchen renovation and the food-based ministries you built it for. So some of the work clergy and leaders have been focused on this spring has been to ensure that the on-going life of the parish and the kitchen renovation completion has been happening.

Another important task of interim ministry is getting a “pulse” of the parish and responding to what needs to be addressed before a canonical process can begin. In some parishes, that means addressing underlying issues such as unresolved conflicts or very messy administrative practices.

Here at St Timothy’s, the “pulse” that became immediately clear was ‘tiredness’. For a number of reasons, many in the parish had that late winter/early spring exhaustion thing going on. And so, we decided to do our best to allow for rest through the Spring; to scale up food-based ministry slowly; to try not to add too many activities into our lives; and to make worship feel as renewing as possible.

We’ll continue in this pattern through the summer; although, we’ll begin getting ready for a slightly busier Fall. One of the big tasks for this Fall will be some parish conversations in preparation for the Canonical Committee to be called together to write the Parish Profile.

We’re anticipating scheduling at least some of them after church on Sunday mornings and enjoying using the kitchen to gather around a meal while we talk.
