Collect of the Day: (said by all)

God of the Sabbath, this is the day and this is the hour when women long oppressed stand with dignity, and when your healing escapes our desire for control: may your joy stretch the fabric of our hearts and inspire us to loosen each other’s bonds; through Jesus Christ, the shamer of the powerful and the raiser of the dead. Amen.

The Proclamation of the Word

First Reading: Jeremiah 1:4-10 (Bev Robertson)

Bible p. 698 OT

Psalm 71:

- 1 In you, O Lord, have I taken refuge; * let me never be ashamed.
- 2 In your righteousness, deliver me and set me free; *
incline your ear to me and save me.
- 3 Be my strong rock, a castle to keep me safe; * you are my crag and my stronghold.
- 4 Deliver me, my God, from the hand of the wicked, *
from the clutches of the evildoer and the oppressor.
- 5 For you are my hope, O Lord God, * my confidence since I was young.
- 6 I have been sustained by you ever since I was born; from my mother's womb you have been my strength; * my praise shall be always of you.
- 7 I have become a portent to many; * but you are my refuge and my strength.
- 8 Let my mouth be full of your praise * and your glory all the day long.
- 9 Do not cast me off in my old age; * forsake me not when my strength fails.
- 10 For my enemies are talking against me, *
and those who lie in wait for my life take counsel together.
- 11 They say, "Pursue and seize that one whom God has forsaken; *
Because there is none who will save."
- 12 O God, be not far from me; * come quickly to help me, O my God.
- 13 May my accusers be put to shame and waste away; *
let those who seek my misfortune be engulfed by scorn and reproach.
- 14 But I shall always wait in patience, * and shall praise you more and more.
- 15 My mouth shall recount your mighty acts and saving deeds all day long; *
though I cannot know their number.
- 16 I will begin with the mighty works of the Lord God; *
I will recall your righteousness, yours alone.
- 17 O God, you have taught me since I was young, *
and to this day I tell of your wonderful works.
- 18 And now that I am old and gray-headed, O God, do not forsake me, * till I make known your strength to this generation and your power to all who are to come.
- 19 Your righteousness, O God, reaches to the heavens; *
you have done great things; who is like you, O God?
- 20 You have showed me great troubles and adversities, * but you will restore my life and bring me up again from the deep places of the earth.
- 21 You strengthen me more and more; * you enfold and comfort me,
- 22 Therefore I will praise you upon the lyre for your faithfulness, O my God; *
I will sing to you with the harp, O Holy One of Israel.

23 My lips will sing with joy when I play to you, *
and so will my soul, which you have redeemed.

24 My tongue will proclaim your righteousness all day long, *
for they are ashamed and disgraced who sought to do me harm.

Presider: Let us confess the faith of our baptism, as we say

All: I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.

He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.

He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.

He descended to the dead. On the third day, he rose again.

He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,

the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,

the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.
