Presider: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

People: And also with you.

Presider: Almighty God,

All: to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hidden. Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Collect of the Day: Said by all

God of wind and flame, send your life-giving Spirit upon your people: give fire to our words, strength to our witness and boldness to our proclamation of your wondrous work in Christ; who, with you and the Spirit, lives and reigns now and forever. Amen.

The Proclamation of the Word

First Reading: Acts 2:1-21 (Kate Turcotte) Bible p. 119 NT

Psalms 104:24-35:

24 People go forth to their work * and to their labour until the evening.

25 How manifold are your works, O Lord! *

in wisdom you have made them all; the earth is full of your creatures.

- 26 Yonder is the sea, great and wide, with its swarms too many to number, * living things both small and great.
- 27 There go the ships to and fro, and Leviathan, * which you made for the sport of it.
- 28 All of them look to you * to give them their food in due season.
- 29 You give it to them; they gather it; *
 you open your hand, and they are filled with good things.
- 30 When you hide your face, they are terrified; *
 when you take away their breath, they die and return to their dust.
- 31 You send forth your Spirit, and they are created; * and so you renew the face of the earth.
- 32 May the glory of the Lord endure for ever; * O Lord, rejoice in all your works.
- 33 You look at the earth and it trembles; * you touch the mountains and they smoke.
- 34 I will sing to the Lord as long as I live; *
 I will praise my God while I have my being.
- 35 May these words of mine please God; * I will rejoice in the Lord.

Interim FAQs

What's happening with the Interim right now?

One of the important tasks of interim ministry is to ensure that the on-going life of the parish doesn't stop. Here at St Timothy's, that has included, that we not lose momentum and energy for projects you already started, such as the kitchen renovation and the food-based ministries you built it for. So, some of the work clergy and leaders have been focused on this spring has been ensuring that the on-going life of the parish and the kitchen renovation completion has been happening.

Another important task of interim ministry is getting a "pulse" of the parish and responding to what needs to be addressed before a canonical process can begin. In some parishes, that means addressing underlying issues such as unresolved conflicts or very messy administrative practices. Here at St Timothy's, the "pulse" that became immediately clear was tiredness. For a number of reasons, many in the parish had that late winter/early spring exhaustion thing going on. And so, we decided to do our best to allow for rest through the Spring; to scale up food-based ministry slowly; to try not to add too many activities into our lives; and to make worship feel as renewing as possible.

We'll continue in this pattern through the summer; although we'll begin getting ready for a slightly busier Fall. One of the big tasks for this fall will be some parish conversations in preparation for the Canonical Committee to be called together to write the Parish Profile. We're anticipating scheduling at least some of them after church on Sunday morning and enjoying using the kitchen to gather around a meal while we talk.

Free Public Lecture through Vancouver School of Theology

A Faith Worth Making: Understanding the Cultural Nature of Children’s Ministry, and Why It Matters

On Tuesday, July 04, 2017, from 7:00 pm - 9:00 pm, there will be a free public lecture, at the Chapel of The Epiphany, 6030 Chancellor Blvd., UBC, Vancouver. Come and hear the speaker, David Csinos, as he explores the intersection of theology, culture, and ministry with young people. Relying on his recent research into children’s theologies and inter-culturalism, Dave questions common practices and assumptions within children’s ministry and charts new paths based on the actual theological lives of young people.

If you are interested in attending this lecture and would like to “make an evening of it”, please see Pastor Ruth about organizing dinner somewhere on the UBC campus before the lecture.
